

Analyst – Internship

About us

The Social Investment Consultancy (TSIC) is a global organisation with a network of experts committed to creating social change. We support corporates and the social sector to rethink their approach to social change and sustainability, and to maximise their social impact.

The role

There has never been a more exciting time to think about the positive social impact that we can create and the momentum of activities underway across sectors, markets and disciplines to maximise social investment. At TSIC Italy we are committed to creating social change and we are looking for a driven candidate with entrepreneurial spirit and a clear passion for social impact.

The analyst will contribute to the effective running of projects, client engagements, and business development by carrying out targeted research and analyses. The role will primarily focus on project delivery, supporting the management team and interacting with clients.

The candidate will have the opportunity to work in a social startup environment and to contribute to the experimentation of tech-based impact models.

The intern will experience firsthand the whole consulting engagement process. He/she will develop the ability to research and analyse different topics, use deductive reasoning to support clients in the solution of complex problems, learn to effectively present findings and improve client interaction skills. The candidate will gain a deeper understanding of sustainability and social impact related topics such as Social Impact Assessment, Impact Financing, Advanced CSR, Capacity Building, and Social Entrepreneurship.

Required experience and competencies

1. BA degree or higher;
2. Strong ability to research new subject areas and turn research into practical insights, proposals and actions;
3. Demonstrated interest in global and domestic social issues;
4. Understanding of consulting methodologies and knowledge of corporate finance preferred;
5. Proficiency in using Microsoft Excel, and PowerPoint;
6. Italian and English language working proficiency and excellent communication skills;
7. An excellent relationship builder who can act as a trusted representative of our firm and work.
8. Previous volunteer experience or any experience in the non profit sector would be a plus
